Mopoli provides update on liquidation timetable and announces arrangements concerning unclaimed dividends

Palmboomen Cultuur Maatschappij Mopoli (Palmeraies De Mopoli) N.V. ("Mopoli" or "the Company") (in liquidation) provides an update to the liquidation timeline and announces arrangements concerning unclaimed dividends.

Liquidation and delisting

On 25 June 2026, Mopoli's general meeting resolved to dissolve the Company and appointed Mr P.G.M. Fabri as liquidator of the Company (the "Liquidator"). Mopoli previously announced its intention to delist its shares from Euronext Belgium by the end of September 2026. The Liquidator, in consultation with the supervisory board of the Company, has concluded that the timeline is no longer achievable.

Reason for delay

The revised timetable reflects the need to:

- complete the statutory liquidation process: and
- to address outstanding unclaimed dividends on 283 bearer founder shares held by unknown holders (the Unknown Holders), currently totalling EUR 746,271 (the Unclaimed Dividends).

Pursuant to Article 37.2 of the Articles of Association and Section 3:308 of the Dutch Civil Code (Burgerlijk Wetboek), claims to the Unclaimed Dividends are subject to a five-year limitation period (verjaringstermijn). As the Unclaimed Dividends have not yet lapsed, the Company still owes these amounts to the Unknown Holders.

Arrangements concerning unclaimed dividends

The Liquidator, in consultation with the supervisory board of the Company, has arrived at the following solution:

- (i) Unclaimed liquidation surplus: To the extent a person entitled to a distribution cannot be identified or located, the Liquidator will consign the unclaimed liquidation surplus to the Dutch State's Deposit Fund (consignatiekas) after expiry of the applicable six-month period following the date of the last payment date for the liquidation surplus, all in accordance with Section 2:23b(8) of the Dutch Civil Code; and
- (ii) Unclaimed Dividends: Mopoli, the Liquidator and Financière Privée, the majority shareholder of the Company, have entered into an agreement under which Financière Privée has (i) voluntarily assumed joint and several liability for valid claims relating to the Unclaimed Dividends, and (ii) agreed to assume the corresponding debts (the Agreement). This arrangement relieves the Company of the obligation to retain funds or make provision for the Unclaimed Dividends, allowing it to cease to exist upon payment of the liquidation surplus. The Liquidator intends to publicise the substance of the Agreement by means of an announcement in the newspapers NRC Handelsblad, de Tijd, l'Echo, and le Moniteur and a press release on the Company's website (www.mopoli.nl).

Claims relating to Unclaimed Dividends

A person claiming entitlement to any of the Unclaimed Dividends may contact Financière Privée, c/o Daniel Haas, 41 Boulevard prince Henri, L1724-Luxembourg, Luxembourg; Tel.: + 352 44 28 77, email: dhs@socfin.com. A claimant will be required to provide reasonable evidence of ownership and entitlement, including presentation of the relevant original founder share certificate.

Timeline

The Liquidator intends to publish the final report in due course. Subject to completion of the statutory liquidation process, including expiry or resolution of the creditor-objection period, and coordination with Euronext Brussels, the Company currently expects the distribution of the liquidation surplus and the Company's subsequent cessation to occur by end of October 2026. This timeline remains indicative and may change.
